

Attempt all questions

Q.1 a. What, in the author's opinion, is the real difference between work and play? Or there is no difference at all between them, elucidate the statement? ✓

[5]

b. Match the words given under A with the meanings given under B.

[1x5=5]

A

B

i. Panorama

inactive

ii. Transformation

overlapping part

iii. Dormant

a number of scenes unrolling before one's eyes

iv. Fleeting

complete change of shape

v. Convolution

passing (quickly)

Q.2 a. In the essay, 'Spaceship' by J. B. Priestley, what did Robin usually say when he began to talk about astronomy? How do you know?

[5]

b. Complete the following words by adding 'ary', 'ory', 'ery', 'ry'.

[0.5x10=5]

i. mission ary

ii. geomet ry

iii. ordin ary

iv. diction ary

v. compensat ory

vi. compuls ory

vii. contr ary

viii. fact ory

ix. myst ery

x. preparat ory

Q.3. a. The title of the essay is, 'Three Days to See', but the author talks about various other things as well? Discuss these things in detail?

[5]

b. Fill in the blanks in the following with suitable forms of verb given in brackets. Use either Past Simple or the Past Perfect tense, depending on the context.

[0.5x10=5]

One day a lady came to see the author. She asked (ask) the author that she took (take) a walk recently in the woods. The author asked (ask) her what she observed (observe) in the woods. The visitor replied (reply) that she saw (see) nothing in particular. The author wondered (wonder) how this was possible. She did not know (know), however, that the visitor told (tell) her the truth, because she had (have) the same reply before from many other people.